Double wall polycarbonate bowl with lid

This double-wall bowl by Pujadas makes food storage and transport a breeze. The polycarbonate construction promises years of use, while the double-wall design prevents condensation and provides insulation. This comes with a lid to protect the food items from contaminants and allow stacking for space-saving storage. This bowl is dishwasher-safe for convenient cleaning, and the white color creates a fresh, like-new appearance. With a 0.45-liter capacity, this double-wall bowl is a perfect fit for a wide range of food items.
