Inox-Pro couscous set with 35 cm diameter bottom pot and upper pot with lid

Designed to help you prepare two food items at once, the Inox-Pro couscous set by Pujadas allows you to master multitasking. The bottom pot is perfect for preparing soups or stews, while the upper pot features small holes in the base to allow the steam from the bottom pot to cook couscous or steam food items like vegetables. Both pots are made of stainless steel for impressive durability and longevity, and the sandwich base features an aluminum core to ensure exceptionally fast heat, even distribution and induction compatibility. The strong loop handles offer a comfortable grip and plenty of support for easy maneuvering, while the lid traps heat and circulates moisture for faster cooking and enhanced flavors. With the satin finish that creates a smooth appearance and hides signs of wear, this couscous set is a smart, sleek choice.
