Product Family: Pizza Pans

Perforated pizza mould 34 cm steel with nonstick coating

Designed to produce mouthwatering crispy crusts, the perforated pizza mold by Pujadas serves up a stellar performance. Made of strong steel, this pan offers impressive durability and heat distribution, while the perforations allow excellent airflow for shorter baking times and crispier results. The PFOA-free nonstick coating promises easy release, so pizzas will maintain their shape and slide from the pan to a box or serving plate smoothly, so you can work quickly and efficiently to keep up with demand.
