Nonstick mat 40 x 30 cm silicone

From start to finish, this nonstick mat by Pujadas helps your kitchen run efficiently. Made of durable silicone, this mat is easy to clean and naturally nonstick, requiring less oil or grease than alternatives. The impressive temperature range of -40°F to 500°F is perfect for everything from food prepping to baking, freezing and storing. This mat is more eco-friendly than single-use baking paper and ensures a better performance, creating irresistible results. It also protects your counters, pans and trays to promote their longevity and quality while providing a smooth working surface and ensuring quick cleanup.
